Dear Prof. Magar,

We are writing to formally invite you to be the esteemed Guest Speaker at our One-Day Workshop on Computers in Teaching, scheduled for January 25, 2019, at Siddharth Library and Information Science College, Padegaon, Aurangabad.

Your expertise in Computer Engineering makes you an ideal candidate to address our faculty and students on the effective integration of technology into the teaching-learning process. Your insights and experience would be invaluable to our participants.

The workshop aims to explore the potential of computers in enhancing teaching methodologies, improving student learning outcomes, and bridging the digital divide. We believe your contribution will significantly enrich the workshop's objectives.

We kindly request you to share your knowledge and experience with our audience through a keynote address on a topic of your choice. We would be honoured if you could accept our invitation.

Kindly confirm your availability at your earliest convenience. We will be happy to assist you with travel and accommodation arrangements if required.

Thank you for considering our invitation. We look forward to your positive response.

One Day Workshop Report on "Computers in Teaching"

Introduction: On January 25, 2019, a one-day workshop titled "Computers in Teaching" was held at Siddharth Library and Information Science College, Padegaon, Aurangabad. The event was organized with the objective of enhancing the computer literacy of educators and incorporating modern technological tools into teaching practices. Prof. Nitin Magar from the Institute of Engineering and Technology Kannad was the esteemed speaker for the day. The workshop was coordinated by Dr. Milind Athawale under the guidance of the college principal, Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne.

Details of Workshop:

Date: 25th January 2019

Venue: Siddharth Library and Information Science College, Padegaon, Aurangabad

Speaker: Prof. Nitin Magar, Institute of Engineering and Technology Kannad

Coordinator: Dr. Milind Athawale

Principal: Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne

Workshop Agenda: The workshop was structured to cover a range of topics relevant to the integration of computers in teaching. The agenda included:

1. Introduction to Computers in Education

- Importance of technology in modern education.
- Overview of the digital tools available for educators.

2. Computer Basics for Teachers

- Understanding hardware and software essentials.
- Basic troubleshooting and maintenance of computers.

3. Utilizing Educational Software

- Introduction to educational software and applications.

- Demonstrations of popular tools such as Microsoft Office Suite, Google Classroom, and educational content creation tools.

4. Internet and Online Resources

- Effective use of the internet for educational purposes.
- Exploring online resources and databases for teaching and research.

5. Interactive Teaching Tools

- Using interactive whiteboards and projectors.
- Integrating multimedia in lessons to enhance student engagement.

6. Hands-on Training Session

- Practical session where participants could apply what they learned.
- Personalized assistance and guidance from the speaker.

Inaugural Session: The workshop commenced with a brief inaugural session, where Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne, Principal of Siddharth Library and Information Science College, welcomed the participants and highlighted the significance of computer literacy in the teaching profession. Dr. Milind Athawale, the workshop coordinator, introduced Prof. Nitin Magar and outlined the day's agenda.

Session Highlights

1. Introduction to Computers in Education: Prof. Nitin Magar began the workshop with an engaging presentation on the role of computers in modern education. He emphasized the necessity for teachers to be proficient with digital tools to create an interactive and effective learning environment.

2. Computer Basics for Teachers: The next session focused on the fundamental aspects of computers, covering essential hardware components and software applications. Prof. Magar provided practical tips on basic troubleshooting and maintaining computer systems, which was highly appreciated by the attendees.

3. Utilizing Educational Software: Prof. Magar demonstrated various educational software tools that can aid in lesson planning, content creation, and student assessments. He showcased the use of

4. Internet and Online Resources: In this session, Prof. Magar explored the vast array of online resources available for educators. He guided the participants on how to effectively use search engines, access academic journals, and utilize online libraries for research and teaching purposes.

5. Interactive Teaching Tools: The session on interactive teaching tools was particularly engaging, as Prof. Magar demonstrated the use of interactive whiteboards and multimedia projectors. He explained how these tools could be used to make lessons more engaging and interactive for students.

6. Hands-on Training Session: The final session was a hands-on training where participants could apply the knowledge gained throughout the day. Prof. Magar provided personalized assistance and addressed individual queries, ensuring that each participant was able to navigate the tools and techniques discussed.

The workshop concluded with a feedback session where participants expressed their appreciation for the comprehensive coverage of topics and the practical approach adopted by Prof. Nitin Magar. Dr. Milind Athawale thanked the speaker and participants for their active involvement and reiterated the importance of integrating technology into teaching practices.

One-Day Workshop on Research Methodology

Introduction: The one-day workshop on Research Methodology, held on February 5, 2019, at the Siddharth Library and Information Science College in Padegaon, Aurangabad, was a highly enriching event designed to provide participants with a deep understanding of research methods and techniques. The workshop was graced by the presence of esteemed speaker Prof. Vinod B. Shikhare from ICEEM College. Dr. Milind Athawale coordinated the event, with the overall supervision of Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne, Principal of the host institution.

Details of Workshop:

Date: February 5, 2019

Venue: Siddharth Library and Information Science College, Padegaon, Aurangabad

Speaker: Prof. Vinod B. Shikhare, ICEEM College

Coordinator: Dr. Milind Athawale

Principal: Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne

Objectives of the Workshop

The workshop aimed to:

- Enhance participants' knowledge of research methodology.
- Provide practical insights into designing and conducting research.
- Equip participants with skills for data collection, analysis, and interpretation.
- Foster a culture of academic research and inquiry.

Inaugural Session: The workshop commenced with an inaugural session, where Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne welcomed the attendees and highlighted the importance of research in academic and professional development. He emphasized the need for rigorous research methodologies to ensure the validity and reliability of research findings.

First Session: Introduction to Research Methodology:

Prof. Vinod B. Shikhare began the first session with a comprehensive introduction to research methodology. He covered the following key topics:

- Definition and importance of research.
- Types of research: Qualitative and Quantitative.
- Steps in the research process.
- Identifying research problems and formulating research questions.

Key Takeaways:

- Understanding the fundamental concepts and significance of research.
- Differentiating between qualitative and quantitative research methods.
- Structuring a research study effectively.

Second Session: Research Design and Methods: In the second session, Prof. Shikhare delved into research design and methods. This session focused on:

- Various research designs: Descriptive, exploratory, experimental, and correlational.
- Sampling techniques and sample size determination.
- Data collection methods: Surveys, interviews, and observations.
- Tools and instruments for data collection.

Key Takeaways:

- Choosing an appropriate research design based on the research question.
- Implementing effective sampling techniques to ensure representative data.
- Utilizing various data collection methods to gather relevant information.

Third Session: Data Analysis and Interpretation

The third session was dedicated to data analysis and interpretation. Prof. Shikhare explained:

- Techniques for data analysis: Statistical and thematic analysis.
- Using software tools for data analysis (e.g., SPSS, NVivo).
- Interpreting results and drawing conclusions.
- Ensuring the reliability and validity of research findings.

Key Takeaways:

- Employing statistical methods for quantitative data analysis.
- Analyzing qualitative data through thematic analysis.
- Utilizing software tools to facilitate data analysis.
- Ensuring the credibility of research findings through rigorous analysis.

Practical Session: A practical session followed the theoretical sessions, where participants engaged in hands-on activities related to research design, data collection, and analysis. Prof. Shikhare provided individual guidance and feedback, enhancing the practical understanding of the concepts discussed.

Interactive Session and Q&A: The workshop concluded with an interactive session and Q&A, where participants had the opportunity to ask questions and clarify doubts. Prof. Shikhare addressed various queries, providing further insights into specific aspects of research methodology.

The one-day workshop on Research Methodology was a resounding success, achieving its objective of enhancing participants' understanding and skills in research. The expertise and guidance of Prof. Vinod B. Shikhare were invaluable, providing both theoretical knowledge and practical application. The participants left with a renewed enthusiasm for conducting research and a solid foundation in research methodology.

One-Day Workshop Report on Technology in Basic Sciences

Introduction: A one-day workshop titled "Technology in Basic Sciences" was held on the 28th of February, 2019, at Siddharth Library and Information Science College in Padegaon, Aurangabad. The workshop aimed to explore the intersection of technology and basic sciences, emphasizing the role of technological advancements in enhancing the understanding and application of fundamental scientific principles.

Details of Workshop:

Date: 28th February 2019

Venue: Siddharth Library and Information Science College, Padegaon, Aurangabad

Coordinator: Dr. Milind Athawale

Principal: Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne

Speaker: Dr. Ilyas Ansari, an esteemed academic from Maulana Azad College, Aurangabad, was the keynote speaker for the workshop. Dr. Ansari is renowned for his expertise in integrating technological innovations with scientific research and education.

Inaugural Session: The workshop commenced with a welcome address by Dr. Milind Athawale, the coordinator, who highlighted the significance of incorporating technology into basic sciences. Dr. Athawale emphasized the workshop's objective to provide a platform for educators, researchers, and students to gain insights into cutting-edge technological tools and their applications in science.

Following the welcome address, Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne, the Principal of Siddharth Library and Information Science College, delivered the inaugural speech. Dr. Tajne spoke about the evolving landscape of science education and the necessity of adapting to technological advancements to stay relevant and effective in teaching and research.

Keynote Address: Dr. Ilyas Ansari began his keynote address by discussing the historical context of technology in science, tracing its evolution from rudimentary tools to sophisticated instruments. He underscored the transformative impact of technology on scientific discovery and experimentation.

Key Points from Dr. Ansari's Address:

1. Integration of Technology in Scientific Research:

- Dr. Ansari elaborated on how modern technology, such as computational tools and simulation software, has revolutionized scientific research, enabling more precise and accurate results.
- He provided examples of technological applications in various scientific fields, including physics, chemistry, and biology.

2. Educational Implications:

- The speaker highlighted the importance of incorporating technology into science education to enhance students' learning experiences and better prepare them for future scientific endeavors.
- Dr. Ansari discussed various educational technologies, such as virtual labs, online resources, and interactive simulations that can make complex scientific concepts more accessible and engaging for students.

3. Case Studies:

- To illustrate his points, Dr. Ansari presented several case studies demonstrating successful integration of technology in scientific research and education.
- These case studies included real-world examples of how technology has facilitated breakthroughs in scientific understanding and problem-solving.

4. Future Prospects:

- Dr. Ansari concluded his address by speculating on the future directions of technology in basic sciences. He emphasized the potential of emerging technologies, such as artificial intelligence and machine learning, to further transform scientific research and education.
- He encouraged participants to stay abreast of technological trends and continuously seek innovative ways to incorporate them into their work.

One Day Workshop Report on Ancient Mathematics of India

Introduction: On March 3, 2020, a one-day workshop on Ancient Mathematics of India was held at Siddharth Library and Information Science College in Padegaon, Aurangabad. The event was organized under the coordination of Dr. Milind Athawale and with the guidance of Principal Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne. The workshop aimed to explore the rich heritage of Indian mathematics and its contributions to modern mathematical thought. The keynote speaker for the workshop was Dr. C.S. Padmavat from ICEEM College, a distinguished scholar in the field of ancient mathematics.

Details of Workshop:

Date: March 3, 2020

Venue: Siddharth Library and Information Science College, Padegaon, Aurangabad

Coordinator: Dr. Milind Athawale

Principal: Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne

Speaker: Dr. C.S. Padmavat, ICEEM College

Objectives of the Workshop: The primary objectives of the workshop were:

1. To introduce participants to the significant contributions of Indian mathematicians to the field of mathematics.
2. To discuss ancient mathematical concepts and their relevance to modern-day mathematics.
3. To enhance the understanding of mathematical heritage and inspire further study and research in the field.
4. To provide a platform for academic discussion and knowledge exchange on ancient mathematical theories and practices.

Inaugural Session: The workshop began with an inaugural session where Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne, the Principal of Siddharth Library and Information Science College, welcomed the participants and emphasized the importance of understanding and appreciating the contributions of ancient Indian mathematicians. Dr. Milind Athawale, the workshop coordinator, provided an overview of the day's schedule and outlined the objectives of the workshop.

Keynote Address: Dr. C.S. Padmavat delivered an enlightening keynote address that set the tone for the workshop. His talk focused on the historical development of mathematics in India and the significant contributions made by Indian mathematicians to various mathematical concepts and theories.

Key Points from the Keynote Address:

- Historical Perspective: Dr. Padmavat provided a comprehensive overview of the history of mathematics in India, tracing its development from ancient times to the medieval period.
- Contributions of Indian Mathematicians: He highlighted the contributions of renowned Indian mathematicians such as Aryabhata, Brahmagupta, Bhaskara II, and Madhava of Sangamagrama, among others.
- Mathematical Concepts: Dr. Padmavat discussed various ancient Indian mathematical concepts, including the decimal system, zero, algebra, trigonometry, and calculus.
- Applications in Modern Mathematics: He explained how these ancient concepts have influenced and shaped modern mathematical theories and practices.
- Mathematical Texts: Dr. Padmavat emphasized the importance of ancient mathematical texts such as the Sulbasutras, Aryabhata's, Brahmasphutasiddhanta, and Lilavati, and their role in preserving mathematical knowledge.

Interactive Session: Following the keynote address, an interactive session was held where participants engaged in discussions and posed questions to Dr. Padmavat. This session provided valuable insights into the practical applications of ancient mathematical concepts and their relevance in contemporary mathematics.

Workshops and Activities: Several workshops and activities were conducted throughout the day to provide hands-on learning and practical insights into ancient Indian mathematics:

- Mathematical Problem-Solving: Participants were given mathematical problems based on ancient Indian texts to solve, fostering a deeper understanding of the concepts discussed.
- Text Analysis: A session was dedicated to analyzing selected passages from ancient mathematical texts, highlighting their mathematical significance and historical context.

Report on One-Day Online Workshop on Indian Knowledge System

Introduction: On 29th August 2020, an insightful one-day online workshop on the Indian Knowledge System was conducted. The event was hosted by Siddharth Library and Information Science College, Padegaon, Aurangabad, with Dr. Milind Athawale serving as the Coordinator and Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne as the Principal. The session was delivered by Dr. Deepmala Biradar from ICEEM College.

Details of Workshop:

Date: 29th August 2020

Mode: Online

Venue: Siddharth Library and Information Science College, Padegaon, Aurangabad

Speaker: Dr. Deepmala Biradar, ICEEM College

Objectives of the Workshop: The primary objectives of the workshop were to:

- Enhance understanding of the Indian Knowledge System and its historical evolution.
- Explore the relevance of Indian Knowledge Systems in contemporary contexts.
- Discuss the integration of traditional knowledge with modern practices.

Session Overview

a. Welcome and Introduction: The workshop commenced with a welcome address by Dr. Milind Athawale, who introduced the speaker and outlined the significance of the workshop. Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne provided opening remarks, emphasizing the importance of understanding and preserving traditional knowledge systems.

b. Keynote Presentation by Dr. Deepmala Biradar: Dr. Deepmala Biradar delivered a comprehensive presentation on the Indian Knowledge System, covering the following key areas:

- Historical Context and Evolution: Dr. Biradar began with an overview of the origins and development of Indian Knowledge Systems, highlighting ancient texts, philosophical contributions, and the role of scholars throughout history.

- Core Components: The discussion included the major components of the Indian Knowledge System such as Vedas, Upanishads, Puranas, and the contributions of various schools of thought.
- Integration with Modern Practices: Dr. Biradar emphasized how traditional knowledge could be integrated with modern scientific and technological advancements. She highlighted examples of traditional practices in agriculture, medicine, and environmental conservation that have contemporary relevance.
- Challenges and Opportunities: The session addressed the challenges faced in preserving and promoting traditional knowledge, including the impact of globalization and modernization. Dr. Biradar also discussed opportunities for fostering a greater appreciation and application of Indian Knowledge Systems in modern contexts.

c. Interactive Discussion and Q&A: Following the presentation, an interactive discussion was held, where participants engaged with Dr. Biradar through a Q&A session. Key questions focused on the practical applications of traditional knowledge and ways to promote its integration into current educational curricula.

d. Closing Remarks: The workshop concluded with closing remarks from Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne, who expressed gratitude to Dr. Biradar for her insightful presentation and to all participants for their engagement. Dr. Milind Athawale provided a summary of key takeaways and encouraged attendees to apply the insights gained in their academic and professional pursuits.

Participant Feedback: Feedback from participants highlighted the workshop's effectiveness in providing a deeper understanding of the Indian Knowledge System. Attendees appreciated the relevance of the content and the engaging presentation style of Dr. Biradar. The interactive Q&A session was particularly valued for its opportunity to clarify concepts and discuss practical applications.

Coordinator: Dr. Milind Athawale

Principal: Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne

Speaker: Dr. Gautam Saha, ICEEM College

Objectives of the Workshop: The workshop aimed to:

- Examine the connections between Vedic knowledge and scientific principles.
- Explore how Vedic texts can contribute to contemporary scientific understanding.
- Discuss the relevance and application of Vedic knowledge in modern scientific research.

Session Overview

1. Welcome and Introduction: The workshop began with a welcome address by Dr. Milind Athawale, who introduced Dr. Gautam Saha and outlined the objectives of the workshop. Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne provided an introductory overview, highlighting the significance of exploring the relationship between ancient Vedic wisdom and modern science.
2. Keynote Presentation by Dr. Gautam Saha: Dr. Gautam Saha delivered an enlightening presentation on the interplay between Vedas and science, covering the following key points:
  - Historical Context of Vedic Knowledge: Dr. Saha provided an overview of the Vedas, their historical background, and their significance in ancient Indian culture. He explained how the Vedas encompass various fields of knowledge, including cosmology, medicine, and mathematics.

- Scientific Principles in Vedic Texts: The presentation explored how certain principles described in Vedic texts align with modern scientific concepts. Dr. Saha discussed examples such as the Vedic understanding of the cosmos, the concept of time, and early theories of natural phenomena.
  - Case Studies and Examples: Dr. Saha highlighted specific case studies where Vedic knowledge has parallels with contemporary scientific discoveries. These included ancient descriptions of the solar system, theories of matter, and medicinal practices.
  - Integration and Modern Implications: The session addressed how ancient Vedic knowledge can be integrated with current scientific research. Dr. Saha discussed potential areas for further exploration and the benefits of incorporating traditional wisdom into modern scientific practices.
3. Interactive Discussion and Q&A: Following the presentation, an interactive discussion session was held. Participants engaged with Dr. Saha through a Q&A segment, addressing questions about the practical applications of Vedic knowledge in scientific research and its implications for future studies.
  4. Closing Remarks: The workshop concluded with closing remarks from Dr. Madhukar K. Tajne, who expressed appreciation for Dr. Saha's informative presentation and the active participation of attendees. Dr. Milind Athawale summarized the key insights from the workshop and encouraged participants to further explore the integration of Vedic wisdom with scientific inquiry.

Participant Feedback: Feedback from participants indicated that the workshop was highly informative and engaging. Attendees valued the exploration of Vedic knowledge and its relevance to modern science. The interactive nature of the session and the clarity of Dr. Saha's presentation were particularly appreciated.

The one-day online workshop on "Vedas and Science" successfully met its objectives of exploring the connections between ancient Vedic knowledge and modern scientific principles. The

One-Day Online Workshop Report: Ethics of Research

Introduction: The one-day online workshop on "Ethics of Research" was conducted on September 25, 2021, organized by Siddharth Library and Information Science College, Padegaon, Aurangabad. The workshop aimed to enlighten participants about the critical aspects of research ethics, essential for maintaining integrity and credibility in academic and scientific inquiries.

Details of Workshop:

Date: 25/09/2021

Mode: Online

Speaker: Dr. Shaikh Aqeel, Maulana Azad College, Aurangabad

Venue: Siddharth Library and Information Science College, Padegaon, Aurangabad

Coordinator: Dr. Raju S. Wankhede

Principal: Dr. Manohar S. Wankhade

Objectives:

- To understand the fundamental principles of research ethics.
- To explore ethical dilemmas and challenges in conducting research.
- To promote ethical practices in research methodology and publication.
- To provide insights into maintaining academic integrity and avoiding misconduct.

Inauguration Ceremony: The workshop commenced with a brief inauguration ceremony, where Dr. Manohar S. Wankhade, Principal of Siddharth Library and Information Science College, welcomed the participants and emphasized the importance of ethical standards in research. Dr. Raju S. Wankhede, the workshop coordinator, provided an overview of the workshop's agenda and introduced the esteemed speaker, Dr. Shaikh Aqeel.

Keynote Address by Dr. Shaikh Aqeel: Dr. Shaikh Aqeel, an eminent scholar from Maulana Azad College, Aurangabad, delivered the keynote address on the topic "Ethics of Research." His presentation covered various facets of research ethics, structured as follows:

1. Introduction to Research Ethics: Dr. Aqeel began with an introduction to the concept of research ethics, highlighting its significance in ensuring the validity and reliability of research findings. He underscored the role of ethical guidelines in protecting the rights and well-being of research participants.

2. Historical Context and Evolution: He provided a historical perspective on research ethics, discussing landmark cases and regulations that have shaped contemporary ethical standards. The evolution of ethical frameworks, such as the Nuremberg Code, the Declaration of Helsinki, and the Belmont Report, was elaborated upon.

3. Principles of Research Ethics: Dr. Aqeel detailed the core principles of research ethics:

- Respect for Persons: Ensuring voluntary participation and informed consent.
- Beneficence: Maximizing benefits and minimizing harm to participants.
- Justice: Fair distribution of the burdens and benefits of research.

4. Ethical Issues in Research: The session addressed common ethical issues encountered in research, including:

- Plagiarism and academic misconduct.
- Data fabrication and falsification.
- Confidentiality and privacy concerns.
- Conflict of interest.

5. Ethical Research Practices: Practical guidance was provided on conducting ethical research, with emphasis on:

- Developing and adhering to ethical research protocols.
- Securing Institutional Review Board (IRB) approvals.
- Ensuring transparency and accountability in data reporting.

1. Introduction to Artificial Intelligence: Prof. Ragade began with a comprehensive introduction to Artificial Intelligence, explaining its definition, scope, and the difference between AI, machine learning, and deep learning. He emphasized AI's role in enabling machines to mimic human intelligence.

2. Historical Background and Evolution: He provided a historical overview of AI, tracing its development from early theoretical concepts to contemporary applications. Notable milestones, such as the creation of the first AI programs and the emergence of neural networks, were discussed.

3. Core Concepts and Techniques: Prof. Ragade explained the core concepts and techniques underpinning AI, including:

- Machine Learning: Algorithms and statistical models enabling systems to improve their performance on tasks with experience.
- Neural Networks: Computing systems inspired by the human brain's network of neurons.
- Natural Language Processing (NLP): Techniques for enabling machines to understand and respond to human language.
- Computer Vision: Methods for enabling machines to interpret and process visual information.

4. Applications of Artificial Intelligence: The session highlighted the diverse applications of AI across various industries, such as:

- Healthcare: AI-driven diagnostics, personalized medicine, and robotic surgery.
- Finance: Algorithmic trading, fraud detection, and customer service chatbots.
- Education: Adaptive learning platforms and AI tutors.
- Transportation: Autonomous vehicles and traffic management systems.

5. Latest Trends and Advancements: Prof. Ragade discussed the latest trends and advancements in AI, including:

- Reinforcement Learning: Techniques for training models to make sequences of decisions.
- Generative Adversarial Networks (GANs): Systems for generating realistic images, music, and more.
- Explainable AI: Efforts to make AI decisions transparent and understandable.
